THE DAY AFTER

This stirring made-for-TV movie depicts the aftermath of nuclear disaster as it follows the lives of a handful of residents of Lawrence, Kansas including a professor (John Lithgow), a doctor (Jason Robards), a young woman (Lori Lethin) and a college student (Steve Guttenberg). Tension rises as radiation levels increase and Americans must find ways to survive against all odds -- physically, mentally and emotionally.

The time is... 5 minutes to Midnight.

What we can do about Nuclear Proliferation

In 2004, the World Council of Churches stated that complete termination of nuclear weapons is the best chance at global peace. World governments can abide by this proclamation by taking stronger actions against nuclear proliferation.
