

You may think rationing only took place during World War II.

See what is being rationed now so that this country can carry on its military missions formerly in Iraq and now in Afghanistan

- ◆ Access to affordable quality health care
- ◆ Teachers and classrooms for the education of our children
- ◆ Access to public libraries
- ◆ Access to affordable public colleges and universities
- ◆ Public transportation services
- ◆ Programs for senior citizens
- ◆ Staffing for local firehouses

$200 billion tax dollars currently spent on war and defense could restore and maintain these essential community services.

Every gun that is made, every warship launched, every rocket fired signifies,...theft from those who hunger and are not fed, those who are cold and are not clothed.... The cost of one modern heavy bomber is...a modern brick school in more than 30 cities....two fine, fully equipped hospitals....We pay for a single fighter plane with a half million bushels of wheat....We pay for a single destroyer with new homes President Dwight D. Eisenhower, April 16, 1953
